

Chung Yuan Christian University — a Model for Holistic Education

Building up Students' Overall Competitiveness · Implementing Learning through Practical Applications

Chung Yuan Christian University (CYCU) was established in 1955. With "education through honest, diligent pursuit and practical experience" as the school's motto, CYCU was founded on the Savior Christ's love for the world. CYCU has seven colleges—the Colleges of Science, Engineering, Business, Law, Design, Humanities and Education, and Electrical Engineering and Computer Science. CYCU offers 29 undergraduate programs, 31 masters programs, 13 doctoral programs, and 18 master programs for working professionals. Enrollment exceeds 16,000 students.

With a firm belief that love is the principal guiding force in education, CYCU practices holistic education and actively promotes internationalization to broaden students' international perspective. CYCU has connections with sister institutions across Asia, the Americas, Europe, and Oceania. The population of international students currently exceeds 1,400.

Under the leadership of Chair of the Board Pei-ying, Pai, President Samuel K. C. Chang, and the cooperative spirit of teamwork, CYCU has recently won numerous honors and achievements from evaluations by several centers ranking the top universities in Taiwan and the world. CYCU will adhere to its ideology of holistic education, implement learning through practical applications, broaden students' international perspective, and realize students' and faculties' talents to the fullest potential so as to be capable to devote their best to the betterment of society.

We deeply believe in the saying “teachers see students’ lights; God sees teachers’ lights”.
